

Académie d'épigraphie et d'iconographie Training sessions in epigraphy and iconographic studies

Julie MASQUELIER-LOORIUS (JML), Anne-Claire SALMAS (AC),

Silvia EINAUDI (SE), and Yannis GOURDON (YG)

Programme prévisionnel Provisional schedule

In Cairo, all sessions will take place at the IFAO, in the conference room, except on Tuesday morning (IFAO archives department, consultation room).

Saturday, 5th October

2pm – Introduction to the workshop and presentation of the instructors and trainees. During this session, trainees will be divided into several groups according to background and experience levels.

Sunday, 6th October

Module 1 - Traditional methods and techniques of epigraphic survey: development and relevance

9-9.30am — History of Epigraphy, and Epigraphy in History (JML)

9.30-10.30am — Early records: squeezes and paintings. Examples from the Griffith Institute (ACS)

Coffee Break

11-12am – Recording scenes and inscriptions on graph paper (SE)

12am-1pm – Recording scenes and inscriptions on graph paper: Practical training (by groups) (4 trainers)

Lunch break

2-2.30pm – Epigraphic survey on plastic sheets: wall preparation and appropriate tools

2.30-3.30pm – Epigraphic survey on plastic sheets: two examples from Luxor (Akhmenu and TT2-TT2B) (ACS + JML)

Coffee Break

4-5pm – Practical training in epigraphic survey after photographs (4 trainers)

6-7pm – Conference at the Egyptian Museum, Cairo

Prof. Dr. Hassan Selim « The epigraphic data: decoration stages »

7-8pm – Free Visit to the Egyptian Museum Cairo

Monday, 7th October

Module 2 – Digital methods and techniques

9-9.30am – Overview of cutting-edge technologies (photogrammetry, RTI, PTM, etc.)

9.30-10.30am – Surveying rock inscriptions in Hatnub quarries using Dstretch (YG)

Coffee Break

11am-1pm – Photoshop for Epigraphists: Introduction and Workshop

Lunch Break

2-2.30pm – Visit to the IFAO photography department

2.30-4.30pm – Illustrator for Epigraphists: Introduction and Workshop

Coffee Break

5-6pm – Conference, Dr. Felix Relats Montserrat « Epigraphy in Medamud »

Tuesday, 8th October

9-12am – Practical exercises based on some artefacts from the IFAO collections

Module 3 – Publishing epigraphic data

2-2.45pm – Digital transition in epigraphic survey: optimisation of epigraphic recording and publications.

2.45-3.30 – The need for secondary information

Coffee Break

4-5pm – From archaeology to historical, religious, and social anthropology.

Moving from Cairo to Luxor

Wednesday, 9th October – Thursday, 10th October

Case studies on the West Bank in some temples and tombs